How about us?

"How about us?" we have heard children ask when they are apparently bypassed for gifts or treats. "How about us?" we have heard grownups ask when an industry elects to locate in another community instead of one in the Carbondale area.

Yes, how about us?

The area was very fortunate in "landing" the glass products firm which has announced that it will locate in the former Tioga-Jamboree plant on the city's West Side.

As we mentioned last week, we should be thankful for the cooperation which went into enticing the firm here.

Yet, we wonder how many residents will ask, "How about us?" in the future when things don't go our way.

It's up to us!

And many of those who ask, "How about us?" may also be the cause of that industry locating elsewhere else.

Yes, you read right!

Think about it.

When somebody from out-of-town asks your opinion of the area, what do you say?

When visiting friends away, do you bad-mouth the area?

When traveling throughout the country, do you put down the area when someone asks where you are from?

We know that there are people in the area who do that.

Are you one of them?

Think about it!

That man you met at dinner one night may be the man in charge of finding locations for his industry.

That clerk at the hotel may one day have the say as to whether his chain belongs in the area.

Don't cover it up!

And before anyone goes yodeling about us being "goodie-goodie" on the area — a shall for the chamber of commerce or some like monitor, let us say that if sticking up for your hometown makes us of those, we're guilty.

But we are not saying that there is nothing wrong with the area.

We are not saying the wrongs should be covered up.

We are not telling you to keep the bad things quiet.

We are just asking everyone to keep the good things about the area in mind, as well as the bad.

Let's work to change the bad, but let us also remember the good which has kept us here in spite of all the bad.

Oh, a terrible, dull little town... Carbondale, Pa.

Tom Kenney — prose and verse

SPOTTED DOWNTOWN during the Pioneer Days parade were the Romichs from Forest City.

Talked with Ann Price who told that her husband Bob had to work until noon that day. We later went to him.

ALSO SAW Ann Daley and husband Joe sitting along parade route in exact same spot they captured last year.

AND MRS. Elizabeth Wedworth remarked that she was glad that no photographers were around to take her picture during this year's parade.

ALWAYS READY with a cheerful smile

WE WERE among those who were thrilled to hear Moore yell, "Hi, YO, SILVER!" as he neared the intersection of Church and Salem.

HE REALLY thrilled the guests over at the Carbondale Nursing Home from the reports we got. A real gentleman from what we heard (and we've heard anything differently).

BEFORE we get too sentimental and mushy, let better say, "Adios, amigo" until next week.

Participates, nouns, verbs and more; ideas emerge from the writer's store. He's got to have words and use them well, a short story in rhyme, he's opted to tell.

HE's got to be fast, "staccato-fire," begin with a pitch and get it higher! Proceed to a crescendo and drop it down, while keeping the reader steadfast... spell bound.

"Our loan officer?"
"Our new car."
"Your Mother."
"Your old boyfriend..." "Our car payments."
"Our new budget."
"My sacrifices."
"Your Saturday golf games."
"Your Monday night football..."
"Your office klatches."
"Your separate vacation."
"My attorney."
"My lawyer."
"My child support."
"Your demands."
"My divorce."
"Your visitation rights."
"Our old car."
"My son..."
"My son..."

Book store renovations

A major renovation of the United Churches Book Store at 528 Spruce Street, Scranton, has been completed in an effort to provide even more efficient service and to demonstrate its faith and support in the city's downtown revitalization program.

Announcement of the project was made by Victor C. Pollock, treasurer of the J.P. Redington Company, and chairman of the business operation committee of the United Churches of Northeastern Pennsylvania, which operates the bookstore.

Pollock, a member of Clarks Summit United Methodist Church, said renovations include new display showcases and carpeting at a cost of some $3,500.

"The renovation concept was developed by the store's new and energetic young manager, Mrs. Cheryl Guse, and was then reviewed by the business operation committee," Pollock said.

Pollock added that an open house has been scheduled for early September by Mrs. Guse and her assistants.

Meanwhile, the bookstore will sponsor a Sunday School Workshop from 9 a.m. until noon, Saturday, Oct. 3, at Covenant United Presbyterian Church, 550 Madison Ave., Scranton. Among material on display will be Standard, Scripture Press, David C. Cook, and other religious books. All Sunday School personnel are welcome for reservations call the bookstore, 344-1167, or the United Churches, 347-4730.
